

MADISON LAND CONSERVATION TRUST 2009 PHOTO CONTEST

Help encourage local amateur photographers and support the Madison Land Conservation Trust at the same time!

The Madison Land Conservation Trust is ready to launch its first annual photo contest and we need local sponsors to help make it a reality. The contest is open to amateur photographers and will have prizes in the categories of landscapes/waterscapes, plants, wildlife, cultural/historic and youth artistic composition (under age 15). With your help, we can offer a first, second and third prize of $100, $50 and $25 in each category. We will be distributing posters and fliers to promote the contest and would like to invite sponsors who are willing to contribute $50-$199 to have their names displayed on a sponsor's poster at the awards ceremony or $200-$399 to have their logos on our website and on the contest's promotional materials. Sponsors who contribute $400 or more will also have their names associated with a $100 prize.

Thank you for considering support for the Madison Land Conservation Trust.
